

It is hard to imagine making the underlying bill much worse, but this amendment succeeds with flying colors.

I urge my colleagues to reject this amendment and vote to protect Americans' ability to simply rest in peace.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York. Madam Speaker, I urge support of this amendment, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 1191, the previous question is ordered on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY).

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY).

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. COMER. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(s) of House Resolution 8, the yeas and nays are ordered.

Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question are postponed.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 OFFERED BY MRS. CAROLYN B. MALONEY OF NEW YORK

The SPEAKER pro tempore. It is now in order to consider amendment No. 3 printed in part B of House Report 117-381.

Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York. Madam Speaker, I rise as designee for Congresswoman RASHIDA TLAIIB's amendment made in order by the rule.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Page 2, line 20, insert after "confidentiality" the following: "including protocols for anonymizing data collected and destroying personally-identifiable information at the appropriate time and not later than three years after the date on which the information is collected".

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 1191, the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY) and a Member opposed each will control 5 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New York.

Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York. Madam Speaker, this straightforward amendment requires the agencies collecting information through this bill to create standards and protocols for anonymizing and destroying personally identifiable information at the appropriate time.

This amendment is a strong addition to the underlying bill, as it ensures that the necessary demographic information collected will be responsibly destroyed to fully protect an individual's privacy.

Complete and accurate data collection is essential to informing policies, laws, and programs that address the needs of our communities.

Individuals who identify as LGBTQI+ have been underrepresented in Federal data collection efforts for generations. This critical information has been missing from this community in all areas of data collection and has led to worsened outcomes compared to individuals who are fully counted in Federal data collection.

I am proud to support this common-sense pro-privacy amendment, and I urge my colleagues to do the same.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. COMER. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Kentucky is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. COMER. Madam Speaker, I rise in opposition to the amendment which ironically highlights the underlying bill's serious intrusion into Americans' privacy.

When the government collects very personal and sensitive information, as H.R. 4176 seeks to recklessly expand, Americans' data regrettably becomes the target of malicious actors.

Too often, we see this story play out in our government, the over-collection of Americans' private information being hacked or improperly disclosed.

From the leaking of Americans' tax records to the breach of Federal employees' entire background investigation files, the Federal government does not have a very good track record of securing private data. Yet, this amendment allows government agencies to place Americans' most private data at risk for up to 3 entire years.

Republicans will not stand for subjecting Americans' most private information to cyber hackers and other wrongdoers, information that should not even be collected in the first place.

Madam Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote against this amendment, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY of New York. Madam Speaker, I urge support of this amendment, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to House Resolution 1191, the previous question is ordered on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY).

The question is on the amendment offered by the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. CAROLYN B. MALONEY).

HONORING SENATOR CLAIBORNE
PELL'S LEGACY

(Mr. LANGEVIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Pell grant, a Federal program named after my mentor, role model, and friend, the late Senator Claiborne Pell, who proudly served Rhode Island for 40 years in the United States Senate.

Senator Pell was one of Rhode Island's finest statesmen who embodied the highest ideals of public service. He was also a fierce advocate of education and deeply believed in supporting the next generation of American leaders. In fact, one of the reasons I am here today is because of Senator Pell.

When I interned in his office as a 19-year-old college student, Senator Pell placed his faith in me, and it was one of the things that inspired me to run for office myself.

It is only fitting that the grant program which bears Senator Pell's name is now the single largest source of Federal grant aid for undergraduate students.

Last year, over 6 million students received $27 billion in Pell grants to help them complete a college degree. Pell grants have made higher education accessible and affordable for tens of millions of Americans, which I know made Senator Pell enormously proud.

Mr. Speaker, it has been 13 years since we lost Senator Pell, but his remarkable legacy lives on.

CELEBRATING 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF PELL GRANTS

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, today is the 50th anniversary of the Pell Grant Program.

This program was authorized in 1972 to provide direct financial aid to low-income students for access to higher education and the opportunity to pursue their full potential.

The effort that year was bipartisan, and the program maintains bipartisan support today, 50 years later.

More than 80 million students have received the Pell grant to attend college, and currently, 7 million students, about 40 percent of undergraduates, are utilizing the Pell grant to earn a degree today.

At Pennsylvania's land-grant institution, Penn State University, annually, about 18,000 students are using the Pell grant to access and afford a great degree at 20 undergraduate campuses throughout the Commonwealth, including two Penn State campuses in the counties I serve.

Mr. Speaker, for individuals, this program is critically important to access and affordability, but it also encourages degree completion, on-time graduation, and lower levels of student debt. For the Nation, this program is an essential investment to maintaining and strengthening our Nation's skilled workforce and enhancing global economic competitiveness.

RECOGNIZING AND
CONGRATULATING SKEEK FRAZEE

(Ms. PINGREE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. PINGREE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate a great Mainer, Skeek Frazee.

Skeek is retiring this month after 12 dedicated years of constituent service to the people of Maine's First District.

I believe the great majority of us who work in this institution do so because we want to make life better for our neighbors. Skeek exemplifies that spirit.

For over a decade, she has committed herself to some of the most challenging and sensitive cases that come through my office. She has fought for asylum seekers and refugees who have lived through horrors in their home countries. It is no exaggeration to say that new Mainers can build thriving new lives because of her help.

She is known across the country for her work advocating for survivors of military sexual trauma bravely seeking benefits that they deserve from the VA.

Beyond her considerable skill as a caseworker, she has also mentored countless interns; been an unfailingly generous, hilarious, and kind colleague; and become a treasured friend to so many of us in and outside of our office.

Skeek, the people of Maine are infinitely better for having you as an advocate, a neighbor, and a friend. We will miss you dearly, and we wish you the very best in your next chapter.

HONORING PAT COOPER

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Pat Cooper for her achievement of being named the 2022 M.H. "Woody" Woodside Community Champion of the Year. Pat Cooper is the owner of a not-so-small business known as Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Hodnett Cooper Real Estate in St. Simons, Georgia. The M.H. "Woody" Woodside Community Champion of the Year is given out to a small business that gives back to local nonprofits, events, and organizations through their time and resources to better their community.

The founder of the company and Pat's father, Roy Hodnett, built this company and made giving back to his community the foundation of his business. Pat has continued that passion for service with her team of Realtors,
